Should the Participant not comply with such demand, the Organizer may refuse to make the payment and declare the prize vacant, without the right to any indemnification or compensation.

9. RIGHT OF EXCLUSION

9.1 TRImarchi reserves the right to automatically and immediately refuse, discard and exclude from the Contest those Participants who:

- Breach the provisions of these Terms;
- Register in the Contest with fake data, or if there is reasonable evidence suggesting that such data may be false. To that effect, the Organizer may demand Participants the verification of the data provided for registration purposes;
- Manipulate their registration or the process so that the winner is selected in a fraudulent or artificial way;
- Infringe rules of good faith, have a dishonest or improper conduct, induce, encourage or promote criminal, slanderous or violent actions or which are, in general, contrary to law, to moral standards, to accepted social rules or to public order, or whose participation is considered, at TRImarchi's opinion, inappropriate, offensive, injurious, discriminatory or may infringe the rights of third parties including, without limitation, intellectual property rights, industrial property and/or image rights;
- Use the Contest to advertise goods or services of their own or of third parties;

9.2 In the event that such irregularities are detected after the effective delivery of the prize, TRImarchi reserves the right to withdraw the prize and/or demand its return.

10. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

10.1 Participants assign to TRImarchi the rights of reproduction, public communication (including availability) and transformation of works/creative contributions presented by them within the framework of the 2021 TRImarchi Open Call for Proposals, so that TRImarchi may use them in any activity (including, without limitation, advertising and/or promotional activities of the Organizer) related to the Contest or may use them in any way to promote the work of Participants, in any media or support it considers appropriate. Such assignment is made for the entire world, during the maximum legal period of the intellectual property rights and free of charge.

10.2 In order to clarify, Participants shall be considered, by the Organizer, as the authors of the works/creative contributions presented by them within the framework of this Contest and, therefore, TRImarchi shall always quote the name of the author when it makes use of such works/creative contributions according to the terms stated in the previous paragraph.

10.3 The Participant declares and warrants to the Organizer that he/she holds all property rights regarding the material presented in the Contest and, therefore, does not infringe third parties' rights including, without limitation: authors' rights, images, trademarks, patents, software licenses, models or industrial designs as well as intellectual property rights and any other applicable rule. Accordingly, the Participant shall indemnify and hold harmless TRImarchi and/or Domestika and/or their stockholders and/or affiliates from and against any judicial and/or extrajudicial claims filed by any third party (including government authorities) based on the violation of any right including, without limitation, patents, trademarks, images, copyright, authors' rights and/or any other industrial and/or intellectual right; moreover, the Participant shall be held liable for all damages he/she may cause to the Organizer and shall consequently pay to the Organizer all the costs, expenses and fees the latter should incur for such infringement/s.

11. AUTHORIZATION TO USE THE NAME AND IMAGE OF PARTICIPANTS

11.1 Participants expressly authorize TRImarchi to reproduce, use and publish their names and last names, as well as any other image or recording obtained within the framework of this Contest concerning such individuals, in any media or support and in any advertising and/or promotional activity related to them, without time or territorial limit. It shall never be considered that such authorization entitles the Participant to any right of remuneration or benefit of any kind.

12. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

12.1 Participants are informed that the personal data provided to TRImarchi within the framework of this Contest, will be treated by TRImarchi in its capacity as data controller.

12.2 The collection and treatment of personal data is intended to administer and manage their participation in this Contest and, if appropriate, the publication as winner as well as the prize award. Likewise, the data may be used for promotional and/or direct marketing actions. The legal basis which validates the treatment of data is their consent. Through the participation in the contest, the Participant expressly approves the treatment of his/her data for the purposes described.

12.3 TRImarchi informs all the Participants that all data requested for the prize award (for example, names, last names, address, e-mail and mobile phone) are compulsory, therefore, the omission of any of them might prevent their participation in the contest and/or the collection of the prize, if appropriate. The Participants of the contest undertake to inform TRImarchi any change in their personal data to keep them updated accurately and at all times.

12.4 The data provided shall not be transmitted to third parties, unless required by law, and shall be treated as confidential pursuant to applicable rules concerning personal data protection, abiding by security measures according to the level of security of the data provided at any time.

12.5 Likewise, it is informed that the retention period of Participants' data shall be for a maximum term of 10 years from the date on which prizes are announced. It is hereby stated that Participants are entitled to request the exercise of their right to have access to them, free of charge, at intervals of at least 6 months, unless a legitimate interest is shown. The data owner may request for the correction, update or removal of his/her data, pursuant to the provisions stated in Law 25.326 ("Personal Data Protection Law"). In order to exercise such rights, he/she may contact the Organizer through an email sent to the following address convocatoria2021@trimarchidg.net and follow the instructions provided. Additionally, he/she shall be entitled to file a claim before the enforcement authority of the above-mentioned law: Access to Public Information Agency, located at Av. Pte. Gral. Julio A. Roca 710, Piso 2, City of Buenos Aires, HTTPS://WWW.ARGENTINA.GOB.AR/AAIP, e-mail: INFO@AAIP.GOB.AR

13. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

- 13.1 Without limiting any of the rights recognized to consumers and users in applicable provisions, TRImarchi declines all liability for damages of any nature that may arise from this Contest but that are not attributable in a direct and negligent way to it. Without limiting the foregoing, TRImarchi shall ensure the proper availability and continuity of the Contest performance.
- 13.2 TRImarchi shall not be held liable for any cost or expense incurred by Participants to create their works including, without limitation, the cost of materials used, printing costs, recording costs, the acquisition of supports or software applications required to comply with the Contest requirements, editing, filming and/or photo printing costs.
- 13.3 TRImarchi shall not be held liable for: (i) any damages, of any kind, that Participants, their accompanying persons or third parties may suffer on them or on their assets, based on or related to their participation in this Contest or for using the obtained prize, declining any kind of contractual and/or non-contractual liability before the winner, third parties and/or accompanying persons and/or their heirs, which is unconditionally accepted by each Participant; (ii) failures in the telephone network, in postal services, or technical defects and/or human mistakes or deliberate actions of third parties that may interrupt or alter their participation in the Contest or in the award of prizes; and (iii) does not provide any quality warranty or of any kind regarding the prizes offered. Likewise, the liability of the Organizer ends with the awarding of the prize to each of the winning Participants. In case the prize may not become effective by the winning Participants or the Contest is temporarily or permanently suspended due to force majeure or acts of God, or for reasons beyond TRImarchi's control, the latter shall not be liable to Participants.

14. MISCELLANEOUS

- 14.1 The Organizer may, at its sole discretion, modify the term of the Contest, make changes to any of the sections included on these Terms, which shall be published on the Site.
- 14.2 The Organizer may cancel, suspend or modify, in full or in part, the Contest and these Terms in situations beyond the Organizer's control, without creating any right of compensation for any of the Participants.
- 14.3 TRImarchi shall be the only one entitled to any decision concerning any situation not foreseen on these Terms and the resolutions adopted in this regard shall be final and unquestionable. The mere participation in the Contest implies the total and unrestricted acceptance and knowledge of these Terms, as well as the decisions that may further be adopted by the Organizer regarding any item or issue not foreseen on them.
- 14.4 The omission or delay of the Organizer to exercise a right shall, in no event, be considered as a waiver of such right. Furthermore, the individual or partial exercise of a right shall not prevent, in the future, the exercise of such right, or of any other implied right or right expressly granted to the Organizer under these Terms.
- 14.5 Any waive of right made by the Organizer or by the Participants shall be valid against the resigning party if expressly performed in writing.

15. APPLICABLE LAW AND JURISDICTION

- 15.1 These Terms are governed by the laws of the Argentine Republic, except for international private law, which shall not apply.
- 15.2 For all legal purposes derived from these Terms and for the purposes of the 2021 TRImarchi Open Call for Proposals, the lower courts for civil and commercial matters of the city of Mar del Plata, Province of Buenos Aires, Argentine Republic, shall have jurisdiction and the Participant waives any other venue or jurisdiction he/she may be entitled to.
